Psychologists Looked In The Mirror ... And Saw A Bunch Of Liberals

Here's how this might affect their research.

By Christie Aschwanden
Filed under: Meta-Science

When New York University psychologist Jonathan Haidt asked about a thousand attendees at the annual meeting of the Society for Personality and Social Psychology in 2011 to identify their political views with a show of hands, only three hands went up for "conservative or on the right." Separately, a survey of more than 500 social and personality psychologists published in 2012 found that only 6 percent identified as conservative overall, though there was more diversity on economic and foreign policy issues.<sup>1</sup> The survey also found that 37.5 percent of respondents expressed a willingness to discriminate against conservative colleagues when making hiring decisions. Psychologists, it appears, tend to fall on the liberal end of the political spectrum.

Social psychology's left tilt has been widely discussed, yet it has been difficult to measure how political leanings influence the work that the field produces. But a new study has tried to quantify just that, and it found that social psychologists assess conservatives differently than liberals. It also found that scientists were aware of the potential for problems and willing to acknowledge them. The results confirm that a lack of political diversity within psychology may bias its findings on political issues.

Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were drowned in the depth of the sea." Matthew 18:6

Apparently many of our legislators don't realize the severity of what they have allowed in the minds of children by allowing the abuse of trust in our institutions of learning. Hope they will learn and come to defend the children.

In 1984, Russian agent, Bezmenov gave an interview. His most chilling point was on plan of “demoralization.”-- 85% of it, was “a slow process which we call either ideological subversion, active measures, or psychological warfare.”

FBI Special Agent W. Cleon Skousen in 1958 in his book The Naked Communist wrote a list of 45 goals. It has become legendary, to the point of being officially read and recorded in the 1963 Congressional Hearing. Here's some on list:

- *Use technical decisions of the courts to weaken basic American institutions by claiming their activities violate civil rights.
- *Get control of the schools. Use them as transmission belts for socialism
- *Use student riots to foment public protests
- Infiltrate the press. Get control of book-review assignments, editorial writing, policy-making positions.
- *Eliminate all laws governing obscenity by calling them “censorship” and a violation of free speech

There are those with power who have evil plans for us. Demoralization is their key.

Step 1 to destroy us is by eroding Judeo-Christian morals. It makes sense for when the Foundation is removed people will lose their way. The radical gender ideology being forced on young people is part of that process.

Connect the dots and remind our leaders our state Preamble says we are to seek guidance of Almighty God. The confusion introduced in their young minds is causing them to question their love for self, for their fellow man and for country. It can destroy our country as you already see students in the news shouting to kill Jews. May God help us to act.
